WALKER'S STORE.

A Remarkable Sale of Relics of the Civil War of 1861-5.

48 Rifles and Carbines at $1.35 each.
24 Revolvers at $1.65 each.

30 Cavalry, Officers' and Cadet Swords at $1.50 each.
14 Bayonets at 30c each.

These are the arms bought by the U. S. Government for service in the field during the heroic and historic war of forty years ago. We bought them at the sale of condemned stores which recently took place at the U. S. Arsenal on Governor's Island, N. Y. In the collection are such famous—and now historic—makes as the Sharp breech-loading rifles and carbines, the Merrill, the Joslin and the Ward-Burton rifles, the Gallagher and the Maynard carbines, etc.

The original cost of these guns to the U. S. Government was from $15 to $30 apiece. All of the weapons were handled by heroes in actual service on the battlefields of our Republic. These old guns, swords, bayonets, revolvers, are now, of course, valuable simply for the hallowed memories which hover about them of the gallant warriors in the struggle between the North and the South—a struggle through which we have become a reunited people, knowing no North, no South, and endearing with patriotic love every foot of our soil, every state in our Union, and can be used for decorative purposes only. Certainly this sale will create a sensation here in Salt Lake City, where patriotism runs high. There will be a window display of these relics tomorrow (Monday) and the week. See them.

Much importance is attached to Oriental draperies these days—no home is quite right, is complete, appointment unless there's a snuggery, or a suggestive bit somewhere of Indian art. The India Prints are now the rage in the large eastern cities and we've bought very lavishly of them to get broadest variety possible. These for price suggestion:

India Print curtains, sold single or in pairs, $1.75 each. Some that will make attractive dining table covers, couch backing or covering, each $3.00; very large size India Print curtains that can be divided into two, $5.00. A full assortment of the India Prints by the yard, 27 inches wide, at 35c, 45c and 55c.

These Reduced. A goodly lot of India Print curtains, bright color combinations and a variety of patterns; of course, they can be used for other decorative purposes that you may know than just curtains. Instead of $1.50 each—$1.10.

Carpet and Rug Special. MONDAY AND TUESDAY. Just a splendid opportunity is this: You may choose from six pieces of extra super, all wool Ingrain carpets—last season patterns, of course, that's the way of reduced prices—but we'd like to see other than a merchant tell them from them; beside the underpricing, they will be SEWED AND Laid WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE and instead of 80c a yard, two days—65c.

For the entire week an offering of Smyrna rugs; new, just in and particularly good values. They will brighten rooms, bridge over bad spots in carpets and right now cost much less than usual for same qualities. Attractive colors and pattern designs, the 30x60 inch sizes that should sell for $5.00 each—$2.75; the 26x54 in. Symmas, splendid $2.50 values—$2.25.

Quaint Fashions in Children's Wraps. What mother won't rave when she sees these beautiful, cozy wraps? They will do, pictures can never be justified by describing. Maybe if we say they are something after the empire style and others capes, you'll get some little idea of style-out, but the beautiful ways of trimming and the handsome materials can't be told of. Fabrics: Plumes, Bedford Cord, and cloth. Those not intended to launder have collars of embroidery that may be detached for washing. The windows in Ready-to-wear store will blossom with them, so come, seeing is best. Sizes are for little tots of 2 to 4 years. Prices 95c to $10.00.

Two Curiosities of Oriental Needlework. A blouse and a skirt. Who was the Oriental beauty that parted with them to gratify American love of the curious? Or will be first here to get them? Or choose their American use is decorative and will be sold singly or together; the patterns are intricate in design, elaborate and beautifully embroidered in the rich color combinations usual to the Orientalists. Blouse $10.00; Skirt $5.00.

New Hammered Brass. Do you remember the craze some years ago for hammered brass? Well, it's on again. Its artistic merit would not permit to be downed—why its desirability should have waned at all is a mystery to many. The contagion caught our buyers while in the east recently and so there's a handsome collection here. Trays in beautiful designs priced from $1.60 to $8.00 each. Handsome Jardieres $3.00 to $12.00 each.

New Bulgarian Work. A lot of fifty cushion tops only just out of packing case; unique pattern designs and particularly bright, rich embroideries on white back grounds. Will make very attractive cushion covers but best of all unusually cheap—at least our art buyer thought them a snap and thinks you will, too. Two kinds, 98c and $1.39.

Up to $1.75 a yard Chantilly Laces—50c. No need to tell women the uses of rich Chantilly laces—for just what wouldn't they adorn; these will give many a finishing touch of elegance to gown or cape. Not a very large lot of them and in black only; Chantilly laces, 3 to 9 inches wide, handsome patterns, sold for $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.65, $1.75, all one priced and while they last—50c a yard. Black Chantilly laces and Point D'Esprit, 4 to 6 inches wide, that were 40c a yard—25c.

Walker, Brothers Dry Goods Co.

New Shell Hair Ornaments

The very latest combs for hair adornment are the ornamental kind. Gold trimmed or set with turquoise. When on his eastern purchasing trip our buyer selected the most attractively designed to be found in neck, side, pompadour and empire combs. The prices are marked at a very close profit margin, so very reasonable for real shell. In the window this week, see them.

Plain Shell Combs Reduced. Empire, side, neck and pompadour combs in plain real shell reduced from 15c and 25c to 9c, and some regularly priced 25c to 50c each—15c.

PRETTY LITTLE PICTURES AND CLOCKS REDUCED. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

We are clearing away the picture section to make room for the new paraisols and so some have prices made smaller. Flatirons, and brocade finish pictures mounted on handsome dark woods, single or in groups of two or three; unique shapes and a great variety of subjects—religious and fancy. The 20c ones 14c; the 35c for 25c; the 65c—45c.

Pretty little clocks in imitation Wedgewood china, splendid timekeepers, three days instead of $1.50 each—98c.

BRUSHES CHEAPENED. An odd gathering of baby brushes, hand and nail scrubs that were 25c and 35c each for 17c and some 15c kinds—10c.

SPRING KNIT UNDERWEAR. The proper weights to save any discomfort of change from woollens to cottons. Soft, pretty weaves, well finished garments, the very best we could select from the hundreds offered us by different mills throughout the country. These for this week:

Women's white cotton vests for spring, prettily finished, nicely woven, high neck with long sleeves or short sleeves—75c.

Boys' ballgrain shirts and drawers for spring, in sizes 24 to 34, each—50c.

Men's Spring Suits and Trousers. Stylish clothing made of smartest, handsomest, new stuffs; made in the most careful and artistic way. By the sheer force of their genius to create, the Stein-Block Co. is easily a leader of men's best clothing—not that we haven't representatives of many other notable makers if you desire them—but for top notch of style, absolute perfection of fit and fabric richness, it's hats off to Stein-Block. The trend of the season is largely toward unfinished, heavily textured, and tweed effects in quiet toned colorings of stripes, checks and pretty mixtures. Stein-Block suits begin at $12, stop at—$25.

The new trousers are all in now, and ready to put right on and wear if you wish. There's great satisfaction in this for men who want to find right trousers quickly. The same scientific principle of cutting applies to trousers as to suits and insures the same perfect fitting; just as handsomely tailored. $2.50 to $7.50.

Spring Suits for Boys. Each and every one selected with the most scrutinizing care—much as you would inspect them right here in our store. Every jaunty, new style that was shown us we brought along. The Norfolk and Russian Blouse suits for little fellows of three to eight, and three piece suits for the older boys up to sixteen years is also exceptionally fine. Vests are being extensively worn by all boys, hence our variety of that kind is large. Worsteds, Cheviots, cassimeres, serges and worsted chevrons in plain colors, stripes, checks and mixture effects. $2.95 to $10.00.
